DAVID MONTGOMERY GENERAL PARTNER, PRESIDENT AND CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER

David P. Montgomery first joined the Phillies on February 25, 1971, as a member of the Sales Department. He progressed to positions as Marketing Director and Director of Sales before becoming Executive Vice President when the current ownership group purchased the team from the Carpenter family after the 1981 season. Eleven years later, Montgomery was elevated to Executive Vice President and Chief Operating Officer.

The groundwork for his eventual appointment as President took place in November of 1994 when he was designated as a Co-General Partner, which included a segment of ownership. He succeeded Bill Giles as President and Chief Executive Officer on June 20, 1997.

Born June 26, 1946, in Philadelphia, Montgomery is a graduate of William Penn Charter School (1964) and the University of Pennsylvania (1968) where he majored in history. He received his MBA from the Wharton School of the University of Pennsylvania in the fall of 1970. He currently serves as a trustee at the University of Pennsylvania.

During his 30 years in baseball, Montgomery has served in a number of industry-wide capacities. He was a board member of Major League Baseball Properties and its successor, Major League Baseball Enterprises, for which he served as chair. He has also been a member of MLB's Labor Policy Committee and Strategic Planning Committee, and continues to work on the MLB Schedule Committee.

Locally, he serves on the Board of Directors of Need in Deed and the Philadelphia Sports Congress. He's a past Board Chairman of both the Schuylkill Center for Environmental Education and the Woodlynne School.

He and his wife, Lyn, reside in the Wyndmoor section of Philadelphia. They have three children, Harry, Sam and Susa.

CHAIRMAN

BILL GILES - CHAIRMAN

Bill Giles has spent his whole life in baseball. His father, the late Warren C. Giles, was President and General Manager of the Cincinnati Reds (1946-51) and President of the National League (1951-69). Bill's mother died when he was nine so he spent long hours and a lot of days with his father at Crosley Field in Cincinnati. Bill's first job in baseball came when he was "around 14" years of age. It wasn't a glamorous position, as he did all kinds of odds and ends in the Cincinnati Reds' Public Relations Department.

Following graduation at Denison University, Giles spent three years in the U. S. Air Force as a navigator in the Strategic Air Command.

His baseball career took on a full-time status in 1959 when he was named GM of the Nashville Vols, a Cincinnati minor league team. From there, he moved to the expansion Houston Colt 45s. While in Houston, Giles served as Traveling Secretary, Publicity Director, Director of Public Relations and Promotions and Vice President. With the opening of Veterans Stadium approaching, the Carpenter family brought Giles to Philadelphia to run the business end of the operation.

Giles began his Phillies career as Vice President, Business Operations, following the 1969 season. Three years later he was promoted to Executive Vice President.

When the Carpenters put the team up for sale in the spring of 1981, Giles organized a group which purchased the team on October 29, 1981. He remained President of the club until June 20, 1997, when he moved up to Chairman.

Giles is among Philadelphia's more civically involved citizens: Chairman of the Board, Philadelphia Convention and Tourism Bureau; member of the Executive Committee, Philadelphia Chamber of Commerce and Philadelphia Sports Congress; past President of the Boy Scouts of America; on the board of the Pennsylvania Chamber of Commerce, Greater Philadelphia First and the Police Athletic League; and a member of the Union League and Rotary Club.

Giles has been honored many, many times for his contributions to the city. Among the awards:

Distinguished Citizen of the Year by the Boy Scouts of America; Garry Maddox Award by the Philadelphia Child Guidance Center; Police Athletic League Man of the Year (1993); Philadelphia Boys Choir Man of the Year (1994); Anti-Defamation League Man of the Year (1994); American Red Cross Man of the Year (1996); Vision of Philadelphia Award (1996) by Philadelphia Hospitality, Inc., and the American Heart Association's Man of the Year.

Giles, who was born in Rochester, NY, on September 7, 1934, resides in Villanova, PA, with his wife, Nancy. They are the parents of three sons, Michael, Joseph and Christopher. Joe and his wife, Paula, have three daughters, Caroline, Dana and Molly. Chris and his wife, Amy, have two children, Eliza and Warren.

RULES OF INTEREST

DOCTORED BAT: If a filled or "doctored" bat is used, the player is to be called out and ejected from the game and is subject to additional penalties. Any balls hit by an illegal bat do not count. If the umpire sees the illegal bat before it is used, he issues a warning, but there is no penalty.

NIGHT GAME: Any game scheduled to start after 5 p.m. will be considered a night game. If a game is scheduled to start at 5 p.m. and is delayed for any reason it will be considered a day game. If a game is scheduled to start at 5:01 p.m., it will be considered a night game. Two-night double headers shall be considered two night games.

PINCH HITTERS: A player shall be considered a pinch hitter only if he enters the game as a substitute batter and only on his first time at bat which must be before he becomes a fielder. If the team bats around and a pinch hitter comes up a second time in the inning in which he first appeared, he will not be considered a pinch hitter during that second time up.

ROSTER LIMITS: 40 until opening day, when the number must be reduced to 25 until September 1, when it again becomes 40 (maximum).

SUSPENDED GAME RULE: For the purpose of this rule, all performances in the completion of a suspended game shall be considered as occurring on the original date of the game. A game terminated by curfew or by a prearranged time limit is a suspended game if it has progressed to be an official game (4 1/2 or 5 innings). A game terminated by light failure or malfunction of a mechanical field device under control of the home club is a suspended game anytime after it begins. Rule 4.11 (d) . . . A called game ends at the moment the umpire terminates play; EXCEPTION: If the game is called while an inning is in progress and before it is completed, the game becomes a suspended game in each of the following situations: (1) The visiting team has scored one or more runs to tie the score and the home team has not scored. (2) The visiting team has scored one or more runs to take the lead and the home team has not tied the score or retaken the lead.

Suspended games shall be resumed at the exact point of suspension immediately preceding the next scheduled, single game between the two clubs at the same site.

Any legal game called due to weather with the score tied is a tie game and must be replayed in its entirety.

WAIVER AND DRAFT PRICES: The waiver price is $20,000 and the Major League Draft price is $50,000.

YEARS OF SERVICE: 172 days constitute a full major league year of service.

RAIN RULES

When a game is temporarily suspended because of rain, umpires must wait 1 hour and 15 minutes before calling the game. Should there be a second suspension, umpires shall wait at least 45 minutes before calling a game. For a third and any subsequent rain delays umpires are to wait at least 30 minutes.

FIELDING CHAMPIONSHIP: Highest fielding average and (a) catcher must have played in at least 81 games; (b) infielder or outfielder must have played in at least 108 games; and (c) pitcher must have 162 innings pitched.

CONSECUTIVE-GAME PLAYING STREAK: A consecutive-game playing streak shall extend if the player plays one half-inning on defense, or if he completes a time at bat by reaching base or being put out. A pinch-running appearance only shall not extend the streak. If a player is ejected from a game by an umpire before he can comply with the requirements of this rule, his streak shall continue.

HOW TO FIGURE

BATTING AVERAGE: Divide at-bats into hits.

SLUGGING PERCENTAGE: Divide total bases by the total times at bat (not including walks, sacrifices, hit by pitcher or interference).

ON-BASE PERCENTAGE: Divide the on-base total (hits, walks, hit by pitcher, and interference) by total plate appearances (at-bats, walks, hit by pitcher and sacrifice flies).

FIELDING AVERAGE: Divide the total putouts and assists by total chances (putouts, assists and errors).

WINNING PERCENTAGE: Divide the number of games won by the total games played.

MAGIC NUMBER: Determine the number of games yet to be played; add one, then subtract the number of games ahead in the loss column of the standings from the closest opponent.

NO WAIVERS are required to trade a Major League player at any other time.

PHILLIES TEAM HISTORY

Philadelphia, a city rich in history and tradition, has played an integral part in professional baseball's history.

While the Cincinnati Red Stockings of 1869 are recognized as the first all-salaried team, Philadelphia's earliest team, the Athletics, followed soon after in 1870. The next year, the National Association was formed and the Athletics were a part of that league.

When the Association disbanded, several of the stronger teams formed (1876) the National League, as it is known today. The charter members were the Boston Red Caps, Chicago White Stockings, Cincinnati Red Stockings, St. Louis Brown Stockings, Hartford Dark Blues, New York Mutuals, Louisville Grays and the Philadelphia Athletics.

The very first National League game was played in Philadelphia on April 22, 1876, at 25th and Jefferson Streets. Boston won, 6-5 before an estimated 3,000.

Resting in seventh place with a 14-45 record, the Athletics couldn't make their final western trip because of insufficient funds. The team was immediately expelled from the league.

Philadelphia was without a National League franchise until a similar fate hit the Worcester (MA) Brown Stockings six years later.

Worcester faced financial difficulties and was about to fold when Alfred Reach, a Philadelphia sporting goods founder, bought the Brown Stockings and moved them to Philadelphia.

Reach named the team the Phillies, a take-off on the team's geographic roots, "Philly." Phillies is the longest-running name for any team in the National League.

Lost First Game

History shows the Phillies played their first game on May 1, 1883, losing to the Providence Grays, 4-3, at Recreation Park, 24th and Columbia Avenues. The crowd was estimated at 1,200.

It was the start of a tradition in which 1,709 players have put on a Phillies uniform and over 95 million spectators have attended games since the turn of the 20th century when attendance figures were first recorded.

In 1887, the Phillies moved into a new "magnificent park" at Broad and Huntingdon Streets, which later became known as Baker Bowl (capacity 15,000). An estimated 20,000 fans jammed the park for the first game, April 30, a 19-10 win over the New York Giants.

The Phillies had to share the Philadelphia baseball scene when the American League was formed in 1901. One of the eight teams was the Athletics under manager Connie Mack.

The Athletics enjoyed more success than the Phillies and thus were more popular. The A's won six pennants in their first 15 years while the Phillies could muster just one.

That first championship came in 1915 when Pat Moran, a former catcher with the Phillies, led them to the pennant in his first year as manager. Grover Cleveland Alexander, a 31-game winner, won the first World Series game against the Boston Red Sox, who then swept the next four games.

While the A's had a strong run in the 1930s (three pennants, including two straight World Championships in 1929-30), the Phillies floundered. Outfielder Chuck Klein led an awesome attack but an awful pitching staff kept the Phillies from winning.

Baker Bowl began to deteriorate physically when some wooden bleachers gave way in 1927 forcing the Phillies to play a few games at Shibe Park (home of the A's). Finally, after 51 years at their stadium, the Phillies moved permanently to Shibe Park, July 4, 1938, splitting a doubleheader with Boston, a 10-5 loss and a 10-2 win.

Ownership of the Phillies seemed to change constantly, while the A's remained stable under the Shibe family. From 1903 to 1943, the Phillies had ten different owners.

Carpenter Era Begins

Perhaps the most significant move in Phillies history came when the Carpenter family of duPont wealth in Wilmington (DE), bought the team on November 23, 1943, for an estimated $400,000.

In an effort to stimulate more interest in the club, Bob Carpenter Jr., the new president, announced a contest was being held to find a nickname for the Phillies. For 1944 and 1945, the club was known as the Blue Jays although they still maintained the official Phillies title. The name Blue Jays was chosen from among 623 suggestions.

The name Blue Jays was heavily used the first two years (1944-45) and then began to appear less often in the newspapers in 1946 and 1947. The name never appeared in the newspapers after that year.

When Carpenter took over as President, he began to pour money into building a minor league system.

The efforts paid off rather quickly when a young team, nicknamed the Whiz Kids, won the 1950 pennant. Dick Sisler hit a dramatic three-run homer in the 10th inning at Ebbets Field to sink the Brooklyn Dodgers, 4-1 on the last day of the season.

PHILLIES TEAM HISTORY

Robin Roberts won 20 games that season, the first of six straight 20-win seasons. Richie Ashburn, the center fielder, started a string of hitting over .300 for seven straight years, including two batting titles.

A world title eluded the Phillies as the New York Yankees swept the Phillies in four straight games.

Eddie Sawyer's young club was expected to be a force for a few years but a third-place tie in 1953 was the best they could do.

The A's, meanwhile, began to slide. After finishing last in 1954, their 11th eighth-place finish in 23 seasons, the A's were sold and moved to Kansas City. Once again, Philadelphia was a one-team baseball town.

Shibe Park was renamed Connie Mack Stadium in honor of the A's owner/manager in 1953. But it's worth noting that as early as 1953, a new stadium in Philadelphia was envisioned by Mayor Richardson Dilworth. Fourteen years and many disagreements later, ground was broken for Veterans Stadium, which finally opened with the Phillies hosting the Montreal Expos on April 10, 1971. In 1995, 25 years later, the Phillies celebrated the Silver Season of the Vet with a special logo and events throughout the year.

Sisler's historic homer in 1950 was replaced as the greatest moment in Phillies history when at precisely 11:29 p.m., Tuesday, October 21, 1980, Tug McGraw struck out Kansas City's Willie Wilson to give the franchise its first World Championship. Dallas Green was the manager.

Under the leadership of Ruly Carpenter, who replaced his dad as president in 1972, and general manager Paul Owens, the Phillies dominated the National League East in the mid-1970s. They won three consecutive division titles starting in 1976 but couldn't get over the hump until 1980, a year after they had signed free agent Pete Rose.

The Phillies made it to the World Series that year by defeating the Houston Astros in a gut-wrenching National League Championship Series. Utopia hit Philadelphia when the Phillies won the Series over the Royals, 4-2.

The powerful Phillies teams of that era were anchored by two Hall of Famers, Steve Carlton, the first pitcher to win four Cy Young Awards, and third baseman Mike Schmidt, a three-time MVP.

HISTORY

Carpenter Family Sells

The end of a different era occurred after the 1981 season. Citing escalating player salaries, the Carpenter family put the Phillies up for sale. Bill Giles, Executive Vice President under Ruly Carpenter, and five other partners purchased the team for $30 million.

In just the second year of this new ownership group, the Phillies won their fifth Eastern Division title in eight years. Adding two veterans, Tony Perez and Joe Morgan, to an experienced team created the nickname, Wheeze Kids.

Owens, who went from the front office to manage the team in July, guided the Phillies to the World Series for the fourth time by eliminating the Los Angeles Dodgers in the NLCS.

The Baltimore Orioles, however, won the World Series, 4-1.

From generation to generation, fans' heroes change. A new set of heroes emerged from the 1993 season, when a last-place team from the previous year turned it around with another division title.

This team didn't have one nickname such as the Whiz Kids or Wheeze Kids. They had many names because they were a group of athletes who became Phillies through shrewd moves by General Manager Lee Thomas.

Jim Fregosi joined Moran, Sawyer, Green and Owens as managers who led the Phillies to an NL pennant and a trip to the World Series.

Heroes such as Alexander, Klein, Roberts, Ashburn, Carlton and Schmidt will always be remembered but there were new heroes on the scene from the 1993 team, which led the NL for all but one day throughout the season. Lenny Dykstra was second in the MVP race; Terry Mulholland, John Kruk, Darren Daulton and Dave Hollins were All-Stars but this was a total team effort. All 25 players emerged as heroes.

As underdogs, the Phillies dumped the favorite Atlanta Braves, 4-2, to make their third World Series appearance in the last 13 years. Their spring training neighbors, the Toronto Blue Jays, were the opponents.

A very entertaining World Series abruptly ended with Joe Carter's three-run homer which gave the Blue Jays their second consecutive World Championship.

On June 20, 1997, David Montgomery, former Executive Vice President, succeeded Giles as President of the Phillies. Giles became Chairman upon handing the reins over to Montgomery.

Phillies baseball is more than wins and losses. It involves people.

People who were Hall of Famers during the early years of the franchise, Harry Wright, Ed Delahanty and Sam Thompson.

People who were MVP winners, Klein, Jim Konstanty and Schmidt.

People who won Cy Young Awards, starting with Carlton's four and followed by John Denny and Steve Bedrosian.

People who were Rookie of the Year winners, Jack Sanford, Dick Allen and Scott Rolen.

PHILLIES TEAM HISTORY

People who reached fans, first on the airwaves, and later on television, Gene Kelly, By Saam, Ashburn, Bill Campbell, Harry Kalas, Andy Musser and Chris Wheeler.

Oh yes. There's one more important date in Phillies history...April 25, 1978, when a big green furry creature made its debut as the team's mascot...Phillie Phanatic. As with the 118-year old baseball team, the Phanatic, too, is a tradition.

PHILLIES IN THE COMMUNITY

Commitment to the community has been a focal point of the Phillies ever since Bill Giles assumed control in 1981. Off the field, the Phillies have become a team to count on through their efforts of reaching out to communities and those less fortunate.

Phillies Charities, Inc. serves as the fundraising arm of the Phillies organization and covers the wide variety of charity involvement of the team. Since 1984, the Phillies have raised over $5.2 million for the fight against ALS (Lou Gehrig's Disease), the team's official charity. Furthermore, funds and thousands of charitable donations have been given to a variety of local non-profit organizations.

Among the groups benefiting from the Phillies are the Boy Scouts of America, CADE, the Junior Baseball Federation, PAL, the United Negro College Fund, the Jackie Robinson Foundation, the Boys & Girls Clubs and Philadelphia Futures.

Over the years, the Phillies have enjoyed a rich history of player involvement. During the 2000 season, Doug Glanville, Wayne Gomes, Mike Lieberthal and Scott Rolen were among the Phillies who donated time and money to a variety of charities throughout the season.

Not to be overlooked are the players' wives who volunteer to play softball and basketball games for ALS, who visit ALS patients at the clinic and who donated and distributed school supplies to families at the People's Emergency Center.

Phillies employees also give of their time and efforts by donating canned goods for the annual Boy Scouts Food Drive, donating used winter coats to the needy and by helping to cook and serve Christmas dinner to the residents of the Bethesda Project on North Broad Street.

The Phillies Speakers Bureau is composed of active and former players, coaches, broadcasters and management, appearing throughout the tri-state area. Dickie Noles is a key member of the bureau. He speaks to parents and youth groups about alcohol and substance abuse through his S.A.V.E.S. program.

Education and literacy are also important elements of our role in the community. The Phillies offer many programs including "Breaking Barriers," the Philadelphia Free Library Reading Program, the Philadelphia School District reading program, the Multiple Sclerosis Read-Athon and "Visit the Vet" which offers school children a behind-the-scenes tour of the Vet. New in 2001 is Phillies Fundamentals, which is an after-school program using a curriculum based on baseball.

The Phillies are also committed to developing and teaching youth the game of baseball in the Philadelphia area. Rookie and RBI leagues are designed to encourage inner city children (from ages 6-18) to play baseball. Combined, the programs involve more than 7,500 boys and girls yearly. In addition, the Phillies also initiated two local tournaments for baseball players: the Carpenter Cup is a tournament designed to give exposure to tri-state area high school baseball players and the Liberty Bell Classic does the same for college-level players.

Millions, young and old, have benefited from the Phillies' numerous, far-reaching programs.

THE PHANATIC

HT: 6 feet; WT: 300 pounds, mostly fat

AGE: Made debut on April 25, 1978

BIRTHPLACE: Galapagos Islands

EYES: White eyeballs, black pupils, purple eyelashes and blue eyebrows

SKIN: Bright green fur

PHYSICAL DEFECTS: Overweight, clumsy feet, extra long beak, curled-up red tongue, gawking neck, slight case of body odor.

The Phanatic was created out of one of the weekly staff meetings of the Phillies marketing department after the 1977 season. It was named after the fanatical Phillies fans.

The original person in the costume was David Raymond, a graduate of Newark (DE) High School and the University of Delaware (1979), BA degree in physical education. In his 17 years, Raymond missed just eight games.

Tom Burgoyne, the current Phanatic, actually began his fanatical career as Raymond's back-up in 1989 and then joined the Phillies promotional staff in 1990. He has made world-wide appearances with Major League Baseball International, including Japan (1997 and 1998) and Australia (1997 and 1999). The 35-year-old is a graduate of St. Joseph's Preparatory School and Drexel University (1988), where he earned a BS degree in Marketing. He and his wife, Jennifer, have two sons, Andrew and Daniel.

RICHIE ASHBURN AWARD

RICHIE ASHBURN SPECIAL ACHIEVEMENT AWARD was established in 1998 in honor of the memory of Richie Ashburn, who spent nearly 50 years with the Phillies.

The award is given annually to a member of the Phillies organization who has demonstrated the same loyalty, dedication and passion for the game as the award's namesake.

1998 Pete Cera — A long-time employee who was with the Phillies from 1938 through 1998. He was a minor league traveling secretary, clubhouse manager, trainer and closed his outstanding career as assistant clubhouse manager in the major leagues.

1999 Paul Owens — With the Phillies since 1955 as minor league manager, scout, Farm Director, Player Development Director, General Manager (1980 World Champions), major league manager (1983 NL Champions), assistant to the President and currently Senior Advisor to the General Manager.

2000 Ray Krise — First began working in the Phillies ticket office in 1951. Three years later he was named Assistant Ticket Manager. He became Ticket Manager in 1962, a position held until semi-retirement in 1986.

BILL GILES AND LARRY ROJAS AWARDS

Two awards were established in 1999 to honor minor league players who share the same attributes as the awards' namesakes: Bill Giles and Larry Rojas.

Bill Giles and Larry Rojas share a love and respect for the game of baseball, an outstanding work ethic and pride in being a member of the Phillies.

Giles climbed the baseball ladder from the minors to the majors, working in numerous executive capacities with the Astros and Phillies until getting a group together to purchase the Phillies in 1981. He was President and General Partner until 1997 when he became Chairman.

Rojas was born in Cuba and played minor league baseball with the Phillies. He has also served as a minor league coach and manager, spring training coordinator, scout and liaison for the Hispanic players in the system.

Bill Giles Award winner — 1999 Gary Burnham
2000 Marlon Byrd

Larry Rojas Award winner — 1999 Alejandro Fajardo

DID YOU KNOW?

The Phillies came into the National League in 1883, having moved from Worcester, MA (Brown Stockings). They have been known as the Phillies ever since, the longest-running nickname in pro sports. Although the club was known as the Blue Jays in 1944 and 1945, the name was never officially changed from the Phillies.

TEAM NOTES

FINE LEATHER: The Phillies finished T3rd in the NL with a .983 fielding percentage. They committed just 100 errors for the second straight year to equal the fewest total in franchise history set last year.

MAKE THE TURN: The Phillies ranked 4th among NL teams in both doubles (304) and triples (40).

INTERLEAGUE: The Phillies went 9-9 vs. American League teams and are now 32-35 all-time in four years of interleague play.

ANOTHER QUADRUPLE-DOUBLE & MORE:

- Bobby Abreu became the first Phillie since Juan Samuel (1984-87) to reach double figures in 2B (42), 3B (10), HR (25) and SB (28) in consecutive seasons. Abreu was also the only National Leaguer to accomplish it this year.

- His HR and SB totals made him just the 2nd player to reach the 20-20 mark in consecutive seasons since Mike Schmidt (1974-75). Abreu had 20 HR and 27 SB in 1999.

- He is the first Phillie since Mike Schmidt to draw over 100 walks and score over 100 runs in back-to-back seasons. Schmidt did it in 1982 and 1983.

- His 28 SB established a new career high.

51 PHILLIES: When Doug Nickle made his ML debut, 9/18 vs. PIT, he set a franchise record as the 27th different pitcher used in a season. The Phillies used 51 different players in 2000, three shy of the team record of 54 set in 1996.

ROLEN UP MILESTONES:

Scott Rolen battled through a sore lower back all season to ...

- Hit a career-high .298. Missed his first .300 season by one hit.

- Become the 2nd-youngest Phillie to reach 100 HR behind Del Ennis

- Become the 7th Phillie to hit 20 HR in four consecutive seasons and first since Mike Schmidt (1974-87).

- Move past Juan Samuel into 5th place with 53 career HR at the Vet.

- Homer on Opening Day for the 2nd consecutive year.

- Hit the first HR at Houston's brand new Enron Field in a 4-1 win. The Phillies also won the first regular season game against the Astros in the Astrodome, April 12, 1965. Third baseman Dick Allen hit the first home run in that park.

- Finish 2nd among NL 3rd basemen in fielding % (.971)

TOP 10 "HOMERS": In addition to Scott Rolen, Mike Lieberthal and Bobby Abreu also cracked the Phillies All-Time Top 10 list for career home runs hit at the Vet. Lieberthal is 8th with 39 HR, and Abreu is 9th with 37 HR.

ACEY DUCEY: Rob Ducey led the NL with 81 pinch appearances and 69 pinch at-bats. He broke Curt Ford's 1989 club record of 62 pinch at-bats in a season. Ducey was 2nd in the NL in pinch-walks (11) and 5th in pinch-hits (14).

RAINY SEASON: Thirteen Phillies games were affected by rain this season in the form of either a postponement or delay. Games were played through rain on several other occasions. There were two postponements, both vs. MTL, and 13 total rain delays. Both postponements and 11 of the delays were at home. The sum total of the 11 home rain delays was 13:08.

100 YEARS WORTH OF ANNIVERSARIES CELEBRATED: The Phillies celebrated three noteworthy anniversaries in 2000. The 20th anniversary of the 1980 World Champions, Harry Kalas' 30th season as a Phillies broadcaster and the 50th anniversary of the 1950 Whiz Kids and their NL Pennant.

BURRELL LEADS TOP PROSPECTS TO PHILLY: Pat Burrell, the first overall pick in the 1998 draft, made his anticipated ML debut this season. Despite not joining the Phillies until May 24, Burrell finished the season among NL rookie leaders with 18 HR (1), 46 extra-base hits (1), 79 RBI (1), 27 2B (1), 63 BB (2) and 189 total bases (2). He batted .727 (.8-11) with the bases loaded and was the only rookie with two grand slams. Burrell's .460 slugging % would have been tops among NL rookies, his .359 on-base % 2nd and his .260 batting average 3rd, but he was 78 at-bats short of qualifying. In addition to Burrell other top prospects made their ML debuts in 2000: Doug Nickle, Dave Coggins, Thomas Jacquez, Jimmy Rollins and Reggie Taylor. All of the rookies, except for Jacquez, were on Baseball America's Top 10 Phillies Prospects list at some point during their minor league careers.

PEOPLE CHANGE: Five of the Phillies' Opening Day starters were with a different team before the season ended: Rico Brogna (BOS), Mickey Morandini (TOR), Desi Relaford (SD), Ron Gant (ANA) and Andy Ashby (ATL).

ALL-STAR CATCHER: Mike Lieberthal became the 4th catcher in Phillies history to be named to consecutive All-Star teams. The others were Stan Lopata (1955-56), Bob Boone (1978-79) and Darren Daulton (1992-93).

STRONG PERSON: Right-handed pitcher Robert Person set career bests with a 3.63 ERA, 28 GS, 173.1 IP and 164 SO. Person ranked 9th in the NL in ERA and he was T6th with 8.5 SO per 9 IP. He held opponents to a .229 batting average, 6th-best in the NL.

LEFTIES ARE ALL RIGHT: Randy Wolf (206.1 IP) became the first Phillies lefty to pitch 200 innings in a season since Danny Jackson in 1993. Wolf also had 11 wins to make him the first lefty to reach double figures since Jackson's team-high 14 in 1994. Wolf's road ERA was the 5th-best in the NL at 3.64. At 24, he was the youngest hurler to rank in the top 5 in the league in that category. Fellow southpaw Bruce Chen had the 3rd-longest consecutive scoreless innings pitched streak in the NL at 20.2 IP. Chen's 3.15 ERA in day games was 6th-best in the NL.
